TRACING YOUR FAMILY HISTORY

Finding out about your family and where they came from is one of the most popular hobbies in the world, and Wyndham City Libraries have the resources and support to make this an enjoyable and productive pursuit for you.

The Family and Local History Room at the Plaza Library contains a wide range of family history information. You can look up birth, death and marriage indexes, passenger lists, immigration records, cemetery records and much more. This booklet helps you to know what is available and how you can find it.

Using the computers in the Family and Local History Room, together with your library membership you can also gain access to a range of online resources including:

Ancestry

Findmypast and The British Newspaper Index

You can also access these databases from the public access computers at any branch of the Wyndham Library Service.

Trained staff and volunteers are available to assist you with beginning your research., as well as ongoing assistance. To book a session go to the Library Event Calendar at www.wyndham.vic.gov.au/libraries or just ask a staff member.
