*2 – A definition of the classes is outlined in Regulation 11 of the Planning and Environment Fees Regulations (2000)

* For the first 12 months from commencement of the regulations (13 October 2016), the fee for a class 15 permit application (for development over $50 million) will be charged at 50% of the fee set out in regulations

COMBINED PERMIT APPLICATION

The fee for an application for more than one class of permit set out in regulation 9 is the sum of (a) the highest of the fees which would have applied if separate applications had been made; and (b) 50% of each of the other fees which would have applied if separate applications had been made.

COMBINED PERMIT AMENDMENT FEES

The fee for an application for any combination of matters set out in one or more classes of application in regulation 11 is the sum of (a) the highest of the fees which would have applied if separate applications had been made; and (b) 50% of each of the other fees which would have applied if separate applications had been made.

NOTES: An application to amend a permit to undertake development ancillary to the use of the land for a single dwelling per lot where the total estimated cost of the development originally permitted and the additional development to be permitted by the amendment is not more than $10,000 does not fall into any fee class and therefore will not be subject to any fee. This also means that a request to amend such an application after notice has been given will also not be subject to any fee under regulation 12.

Amendments sought after notice has been given in accordance with Section 52 of the Act but prior to the application being determined incur a fee of 40% of the fee for that class of permit (Regulation 9 & 11).

If an application to amend an application for a permit or amend an application to amend a permit has the effect of changing the class of that permit to a new class, the applicant must pay an additional fee being the difference the original class of application and the amended class of permit.
