Saltwater Community Centre

A STROKE OF GENIUS

Saltwater Community Centre hosted another Stroke Week event this year, building on last year's event. Run with support from The Stroke Association, we expanded the event to include Wyndham Civic Centre and Manor Lakes Community Learning Centre as partner venues. IPC nurses and students provided blood sugar, blood pressure and BMI checks, whilst Saltwater Art Studio artist Carolyn Warren-Langford was on hand to help participants create their own ceramic red blood cell memento. In three hours, we saw one hundred and ten community participants, referring four on for further assessment. Stroke kills more men than prostate cancer and more women than breast cancer every year, yet over eighty percent of strokes are preventable.

Make sure you get an annual check up, and learn to recognize the signs of stroke: F.A.S.T—has their FACE drooped? Can they lift both ARMS? Is their SPEECH slurred and do they understand you? Call 000—TIME is critical! Contact the Stroke Foundation at strokefoundation.org.au

SALTWATER ART STUDIO

Saltwater Art Studio is evolving! Over the last couple of months the studio has transitioned into an artist-led space, that is, a space in which the artists accessing it are now working together collectively to develop and run it. Along with the established offerings that Saltwater Art Studio has become known for (it's ceramics, painting, and youth offerings), there will also be a variety of short-term and one-off activities to fill out the schedule, which will change each quarter. For more information visit our new website and be sure to 'like' and follow us on Facebook and Instagram for news updates and weekly doses of creative inspiration!

Around Saltwater

Putting On A Show

Our Saltwater Crafters put on another spectacular display of their inventive knitted tea cosies at this year's Royal Melbourne Show. A number of the group travelled to the Showgrounds in September to see their handiwork take centre stage in the Maker's Pavillion, raising funds and awareness for Alzheimers Australia. The Craft Group meets every Wednesday in the Saltwater Art Studio between 9am and 12 noon. Bring along your current project, make new friends and enjoy crafting with the experts!

Seniors Week Festival 2018

Wyndham Happy Life Inc provided an rich cultural afternoon for a huge audience as part of this year's Wyndham Senior's Week Festival. A number of residents from the local retirement home attended the festivities, with a banquet lunch followed by performances from Happy Life participants, including Tai Chi, Tai Chi Tennis, traditional swordsmanship, choirs, fan and ribbon dancing. The highlight of the day was performance of Happy Life's own song, composed as a love letter to Wyndham. Congratulations to all all the performers on an amazing event!

HOLIDAY FUN

Did you know that Saltwater Community Centre runs holiday activities for kids during the school term breaks?

We recently had great fun making lanterns and frames (pictured above), decorating lamps and wall decors. Creative activities for parents and their kids aged 3-10 years old.

For more info on our holiday programs, contact the centre on 8376 5504 or email saltwatercc@wyndham.vic.gov.au

Community Centre News

Community Liaison Officer

Many of you will be familiar with Fiona Rodrigues (pictured left) who has been taking you community centre calls and enquiries for the last year whilst Sue Logovae was on secondment. We're delighted to announce that Fiona is now our permanent Community Liaison Officer. Congratulations Fiona, and welcome to the team!

Saltwater P-9 College Enquiries

With the construction of the new Saltwater College on our doorstep, we are very pleased to have Principal Jackie Daniali co-ordinating this exciting new development from the Community Centre Offices. Sue Vijay (pictured right) is at Saltwater Community Centre's reception where she can advise you on enrolments and other School Enquiries. Pop in and have a chat with Sue!

Goodbye to Sue

Sue Logovae has sadly departed Saltwater to return to Whittlesea Council where she will be the new face of Barry Road Community Centre. Sue was with us from the very first day of the centre, so she's always welcome at the centre as part of our extended family. We wish Sue all the very best for the future and thank her for her years of service.
