You too can Doctor Who.....

Doctor Who?

The Doctor is a Time Lord from the planet Gallifrey. The Doctor travels through all space and time in a spaceship called the TARDIS.

Are you meeting the Doctor for the first time? Or are you a fan of the tv show, the books, the graphic novels, games and more?

Well, you too can Doctor Who.....

Dress like the Doctor:

The Doctor has 13 regenerations and each incarnation of the Doctor has their own unique style. Start with a basic outfit of jeans and a tshirt (plain or pattern). Then add an accessory to show your individual flair. It could be a fez, sandshoes, a scarf, a coat, a cape, a jumper with holes in it, black sunglasses, boots or even a bow tie.

You too can Doctor Who.....

Eat like the Doctor:

- The First Doctor uses a "food replicator" machine in the TARDIS to create a "bacon-and-eggs" snack.
- The Second and Fourth Doctor like to eat jelly babies.
- The Fifth Doctor can be seen wearing a stick of celery as a fashion accessory (but probably eats it too!)
- The Seventh Doctor likes a cup of tea.
- The Ninth Doctor likes bananas because they are full of potassium.
- The Tenth Doctor claims to have invented the banana daiquiri and insists that you should always take a banana to a party.
- The Eleventh Doctor says fish fingers and custard are appetising (but I would eat them separately and not on the same plate!)
- The Eleventh Doctor also likes Jammie Dodgers (a short bread biscuit filled with strawberry or raspberry jam).
- The Thirteenth Doctor's TARDIS dispenses custard cream biscuits from the command console.

Fun things to do:

- Research "Doctor Who BBC" and explore information about the TV show, the actors in the show, fun activities and things to make and do.
- Research "Doctor Who BBC quiz which doctor are you?" online and find out which "doctor" personality is most like your own.
- Research "BBC Doctor Who comic creator" online and explore an app that allows you to create comics using characters from the TV show Doctor Who.