

THE STRUGGLE OF THE "BLUES."

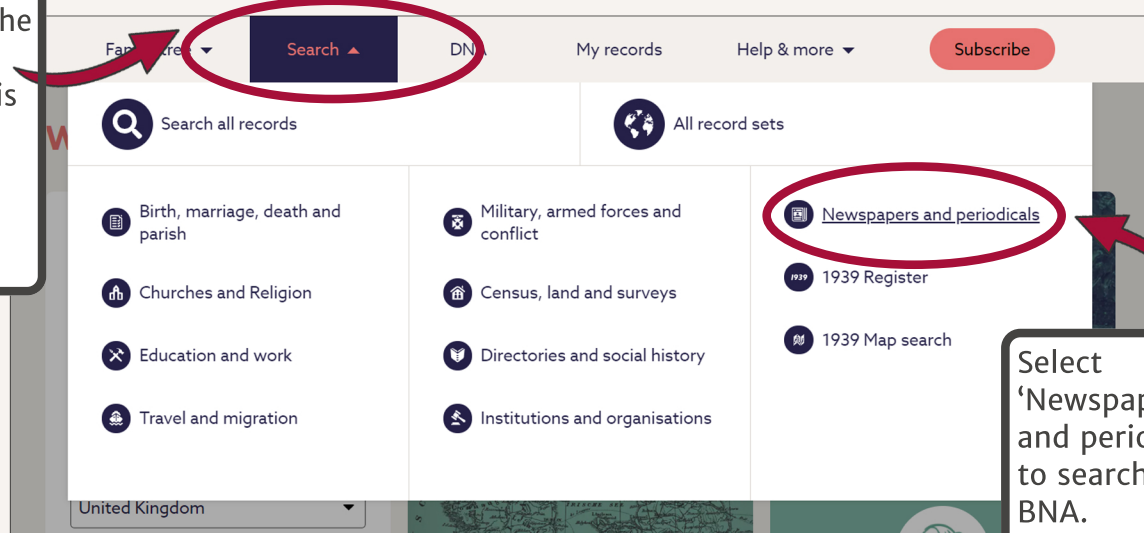

CLOWBRIDGE.

WEDDING.—Last week there was solemnized at the Baptist Chapel, Clowbridge, the marriage of Mr. R. H. Fenn, of Waterloo-road, Burnley, to Miss Nellie Riley, eldest daughter of Mr. James Henry Riley, farmer and butcher of Dunhockshaw Farm. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Joseph Riley, was attended by her sister, Miss Elsie Riley, whilst the bridegroom was

Exploring newspapers on Findmypast

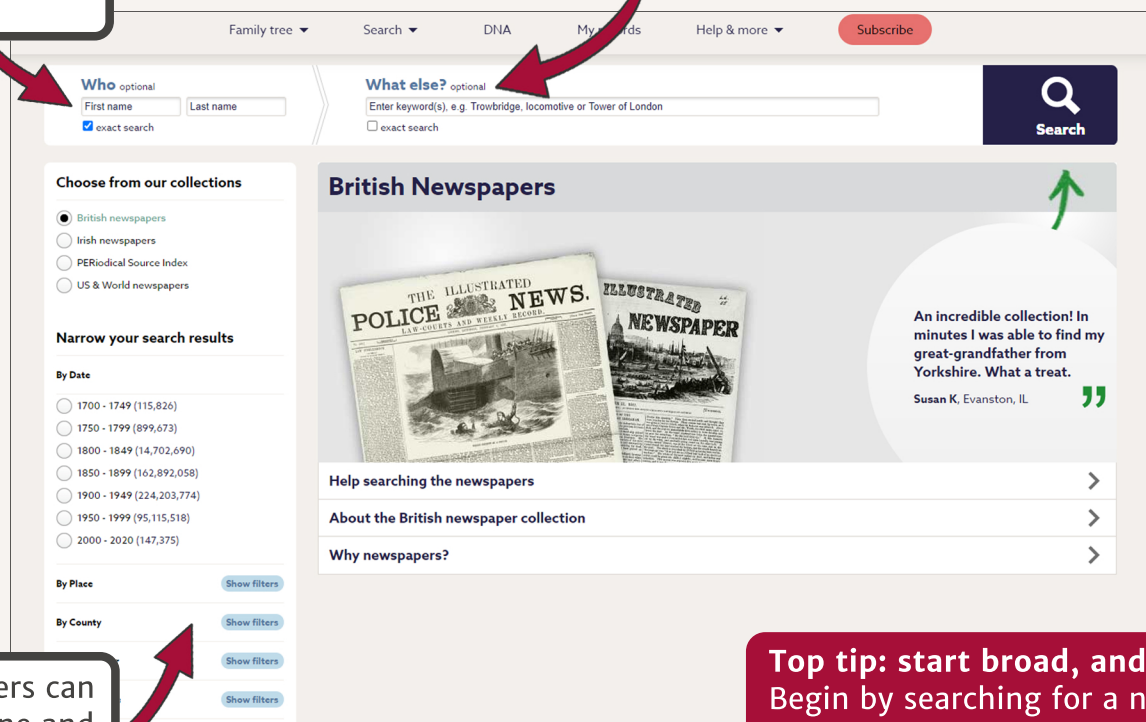

Click on search in the top tab of the Findmypast homepage - this will give you several record sets to search from.

Select 'Newspapers and periodicals' to search the BNA.

Use Who to enter a first and last name.

Use What else? to enter a location, keyword, occupation, or phrase.

These filters can easily refine and narrow your results by newspaper title, publication date or region.

Top tip: start broad, and then filter! Begin by searching for a name or keyword, and gradually include additional information (such as a location) to narrow your results.