

In the Garden Crossword

ACROSS

4. What am I? I am round, bright red when ready to eat, and I often appear in salads.
6. A scientist who studies plant life is called a _____.
10. Cleomes, impatiens, and lobelias are all types of _____.
12. An indoor garden is called a _____.
13. A person who looks after a garden is called a _____.
15. Most plants have lots of these and some trees shed them during Autumn.

DOWN

1. A gardener may use me to cut grass.
2. A well-known kind of flower garden is called a _____ garden.
3. Some gardeners grow plants to attract this flying insect with brightly coloured wings.
5. Some gardens have these along their borders. They help stop dogs escaping.
7. Plants that live for many years and can sprout every spring are called _____.
8. This garden contains lots of trees or shrubs trimmed into different shapes.
9. Cutting off branches and shoots is called _____.
11. Another word for a lot of leaves is _____.
14. All plants have these to extract food and water from the ground.

Looking for Answers?

Search for “Garden” on the Britannica Library website.

Change the reading level to 2.

All library members get free access to Britannica by logging in from the Wyndham Libraries website.

Don't have a membership?

It's free to join the library.

The answers for the crossword are on the next page.

Crossword Answers

Across

- 4. Tomato
- 6. Botanist
- 10. Flowers
- 12. Conservatory
- 13. Gardener
- 15. Leaves

Down

- 1. Mower
- 2. Cottage
- 3. Butterfly
- 5. Fence
- 7. Perennials
- 8. Topiaries
- 9. Pruning
- 11. Foliage
- 14. Roots