

Print out these pages and cut out each black box. Then cut along the line in the middle so each dinosaur is chopped in half. You can stick the cards onto cardboard to make them stronger and decorate the back of the cards. Lay them all out face down so you can't see the dinosaurs and turn over two cards. The aim of the game is to see how long it takes to match up each dinosaur card correctly.

