2 – Buying an Existing Food Business

New Food Act Requirements - Change of Ownership (for food businesses):

A Food Act registration can no longer be transferred between owners. For ownership of a food business to change, the current proprietor must notify Council with the date to cancel their registration and the new owner must submit a Food Act Registration Form.

Before you buy an existing food business, we strongly recommend you get an up-to-date Food Act pre-purchase inspection, to make sure the food premises complies with current laws prior to purchase. For Council to release information to the buyer, the current owner's consent must be provided. Please complete the consent form below:

Wyndham City Council’s Environmental Health Unit can provide a formal assessment of your structural plans for a fee of $385. This is an optional service that requires an additional 10 working days of processing time.

- I would like a formal assessment of plans and agree to the additional fee/time involved.
- I have attached full floor plans to enable a formal assessment of plans to be undertaken – plans must be included with application to progress.

4 – Register a fixed-location Food Business

I have provided the size of the floor area of the premise/s – see above in red, you must complete this to progress application.

Food Classes

The type of food that you prepare, and sell will determine your risk classification. We have provided some examples in the table below. Some classifications are already set. 9 – Building Permits

You will require a building permit if you are:

- Building a new premise/s
- Make any internal or external changes to the building in which your business will be located (this includes non-loadbearing walls, cool rooms, fence lines and/or installation of permanent structures such as shade sails)
- Change the number of people that can occupy your building at any one time
- Require alterations to buildings to make an easier accessible option for mobility in accordance with AS 1428.1 (e.g. front entrance level with footpath, wheelchair accessible toilets)

Please note:

- Building Permits can be sought from any registered building surveyor within Victoria.
- Wyndham City Council offer this service via Wyndham Building Permits located at the Civic Centre.

Please contact (03) 9742 0716 or visit our website at
