COLOUR ME IN

This unusual looking animal is one of only two monotremes in Australia – a mammal species that also lays eggs. An excellent swimmer, the Platypus can hold its breath for long periods of time whiles using its bill to hunt for food in the riverbed.