

Meet Wren from Aotearoa New Zealand where the first nations people are called Māori. Māori people are very generous with their culture and encourage everyone to learn about and join in with their traditional art!

Kōwhaiwhai is a form of Maori art from Aotearoa New Zealand. The pattern designs are usually coloured in red, black and white. Each pattern tells a story.

Have a search on Kōwhaiwhai patterns online and try creating your own art work.

Show us what you have made on the Kids Creations Gallery.