Manor Lakes, Werribee and Wyndham Vale

Seniors Festival at Manor Lakes Community Learning Centre – FREE

Wednesday 1 October from 10am – 12pm

Arts with Seniors - Bookings essential

Come and enjoy a relaxing canvas painting session designed especially for seniors. Whether you're a beginner or have painted before, this is your chance to explore your imagination, enjoy gentle guidance, and create something uniquely yours. No experience needed just bring your curiosity & love of creativity.

Thursday 9 October from 10am – 1pm

Senior's Play and Connect - Bookings essential

Come along for an event packed with laughter, friendly games, and good company! We'll be playing classics like Musical Chairs and Bingo, plus there'll be plenty of tasty snacks to enjoy. It's all about having fun, sharing smiles, and making memories together. Don't miss out!

Wednesday 15 October from 12pm – 2pm

Generations in the Kitchen - Bookings essential

Join us for a special cooking activity where seniors and young people come together to share recipes, stories, and laughter in the kitchen. This intergenerational gathering is all about learning from one another, celebrating traditions, and creating new memories while preparing delicious dishes side by side. Whether you're passing down a family recipe or discovering a new flavour, it's a chance to connect across generations in a fun, hands-on way.

Wednesday 29 October from 11am – 12:30pm

Health Checks with IPC Health

International Stroke Day, observed on October 29, aims to raise awareness about stroke prevention. We'll be bringing IPC Health nurses to the centre to provide free 2 mins blood pressure and blood sugar health checks, with nurses on hand to help you understand your results and offer advice. We'll even have an artwork of ceramic blood cells you can add to, showing your participation. So, pop down and get a free check-up.

No need to book, first come first served!
