

Apply to register your food business

About this form

Use this form to register your food business with us.

What you need

- Your business details, including your ABN.
- If you are not the proprietor of the business, the proprietor's details and authorisation.
- A list of the foods you will handle or sell.
- The classification of your food business.

When you submit your form, you must attach:

- A floorplan showing all parts of your premises, location of sinks and basins, fittings and fixtures, surfaces and furniture. The floor plan must indicate where you carry out your food handling processes and work.
- If you are registering a class 1, 2 and 3A business, your Food Safety Supervisor Certificate.
- If you're a food business that produces wastewater, a trade waste consent letter from Greater Western Water.
- If your business is a company, an extract of your company registration from ASIC.

All Class 1 and some Class 2 businesses also require a food safety program. You must attach your food safety program to this application. Visit the Department of Health's website to find the right food safety program for your business: <https://www.health.vic.gov.au/food-safety/food-safety-programs>.
