

Property owner's consent

About this form

Agents or contractors should submit this form with their online application for property owner's details.

What you need

- Name, address, date of birth and contact details of the property owner you are representing.
- Consent from the property owner you are representing.
- Lot or street numbers of the properties you are seeking details for.

How to return this form

Once the property owner has provided their consent, take a photo or scan this form. Upload it as an attachment when you submit a request for property information on our website.

Payment

Agents or contractors must pay a fee per property when they lodge their application.

To avoid this fee, ask the property owner to submit this application. There is no charge for property owners.
