Featured Events

Seniors Month

Ages 18+

Celebrate Seniors Month with three free community information sessions at the library. We're partnering with Services Australia and Metro Trains to bring you information on downsizing in retirement and navigating train travel with confidence. Connect with local organisations, discover helpful resources and learn about programs and services.

See the Adults' section for full details.

Mental Health Week

Ages 3–12 and 18+

Drop into your local library during Mental Health Week (5 – 10 October) for a range of themed activities for kids including mindful colouring, crafts and stories, as well as a workshop for adults on using journaling as a tool for clarity, calm and hope.

See the Adults' and Kids' sections for full details.

Summer Break for Programs

Our regular programs will be taking a break for the summer. Early years, kids and youth programs finish up on Saturday 28 November. Adult programs finish on Friday 11 December.

Programs will recommence on Monday 1 February.

We'll have more information about festive season and summer holiday activities in our next edition.
